C. G. GAULT, W. M.
C. P. RASP, Secretary.

COLORED CITIZENS.

Mr. Frank Bell, one of our highly respected citizens, died Sunday afternoon at the family residence in West Fourth street. He had been confined to his bed just one week. Mr. Bell was a good, law-abiding citizen and a splendid neighbor. He leaves a wife, four children—Mrs. Sadie Davis, of Braeholm, W. Va., Mrs. Irene Giles, of Chicago, Mrs. Jessie Turner and Miss Anna Bell of this city—two step-children—Mrs. Bessie Taylor, of Portsmouth, Ohio, and James Jackson, of this city. He was a member of the Bethel Baptist church. Funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 from the above named church with services by Rev. Robert Jackson. Burial in Maysville cemetery.

Porter Jackson of Braeholm, W. Va., is here to attend the funeral of Mr. Frank Bell; also Messrs. Thomas Taylor and Mr. James Davis.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO WRECK.

Henderson, Ky., April 11.—William Billings, 50 years old, farmer, and Melvin Woods, 32, airplane mechanic, Owensboro, were killed here this morning when a large automobile, driven by Woods turned turtle on the Corydon Road.

Dwaine Billings, 32 years old, son of William Billings, and Henry Taylor, farm laborer, were injured. Billings probably fatally.

April 15th is the last day for discounting telephone bills. 9-6t

"Family Day" brought forth a very good attendance in spite of a very gloomy Sunday. Several schools forgot to report their attendance as they had promised to. Don't forget this next Sunday. The attendance secretary cannot get everybody on the "phone"; let the schools do their part. The school at the "Little Brick" had a big day. They offered a beautiful bouquet of flowers to the largest family present. The bouquet had to be divided between the families of Messrs. Frank Bierley and W. J. Maxey, each of which had seven present.

At the Third Street M. E. Sunday school there were about twenty families present in their entirety. This school has a splendid service making a new record for attendance.

The First Presbyterian school gave the church five additions—one man and four girls. This of course, cheered the heart of the superintendent, Mr. Jas. B. Wood, who is never happier than when members of his school are giving themselves to Christ and the church.

The visitation last Sunday has produced some good results. Several schools show substantial increases from the enlivening effects of the boosters.

Next Sunday will be "Friends" day. Everyone has friends. And about all of us have good friends who do not attend Sunday school. These are the ones to be gone after for next Sunday. Sunday school folks, show yourselves friendly this week. Let them know that your Sunday school is a good place to study about the best Friend of all—their savior.

Another meeting of the county executive committee is scheduled for Tuesday evening at the Third Street M. E. Church. It is very important that every member be present. The committee has arranged for five thousand window cards advertising Go-To-Sunday-School-Day. These cards are to be sent all over the county. The home that has not a card announcing to the world that they believe in the Sunday school and expect to attend on Go-To-Sunday-School-Day is going to look mighty lonesome. Mason county is going after that 10,000 record this year. Everyone likes to be linked up with a successful movement; get in line with our Sunday school folks and you will be in the line of success.

LOCAL MERCHANT WEDS.
It has just become known that Mr. Sid Stiebel, manager of the local Army and Navy store, was married, at Jeffersonville, Ind., last Thursday, to Miss Sylvia Stry. Mr. and Mrs. Stiebel will make their home for the present in Maysville.
